

Family Need Application Process
K-12 Tuition Assistance Program
Hawaii Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Statement of Purpose

The Hawaii Conference desires to do everything possible to enable children and young people to attend one of our schools. The following 5-Step Process for Assistance has been developed to help provide financial assistance to those parents and children who desire an Adventist Christian Education.

5-Step Process for Assistance

1. Every student who has at least one parent who is a member of a Seventh-day Adventist church in Hawaii will indicate their desire to attend the Adventist school by doing the following:
 - a. Submit a statement with this application regarding their reasons for desiring to attend
 - b. Maintain satisfactory citizenship, attendance, and scholastic achievement throughout the school year
 - c. Each student, age appropriate, is encouraged contribute financially. Examples:
 - i. Helping the family by saving money
 - ii. Fundraising
 - iii. Working in the summers and during the school year
2. Parents will demonstrate a commitment to the school by doing the following:
 - a. Encourage their child to maintain satisfactory citizenship, attendance, and scholastic achievement
 - b. Regularly pay their share of the tuition, fees, and expenses
 - c. Submit with this application a copy of the previous year's federal income tax return (IRS Form 1040) verified by a Pastor or Principal
3. Local churches and members will provide financial support
4. Schools will provide scholarships and/or a discount from tuition
5. The Hawaii Conference will provide funds that are available to assist families and schools. Applications must be received on or before 4:30 p.m. on August 18, 2011.

Other Important Information

1. All applications must be completed in full and all parties have agreed and signed the 5-Step Involvement and Statement of Understanding on the Family Need Application Form. Separate applications must be made for each child in the family. (Incomplete forms will not be returned or processed.)
2. Pastors and/or teachers employed by the Hawaii Conference are not eligible for this assistance.

Through a cooperative effort of the child, family, church, school, and the Hawaii Conference, provisions can be made so that every child who desires an Adventist Christian education, can be provided the opportunity. Parents should contact the school and their pastor to make arrangements.
